Dinner at Home

Francesca and Dara talked about the food they have at home. Francesca’s Italian grandmother liked to cook tomato sauce and serve it with noodles. “I love pasta,” said Francesca. “My grandmother’s meatballs are better than any you can find in a restaurant.”

“My family is from Thailand,” said Dara. “My grandmother makes curry. It’s creamy because she adds coconut milk. It’s also spicy. She uses spices and peppers from Thailand. You can buy those at a specialty grocery store downtown.”

“Do you like spicy food?” asked Francesca.

“I love it!” said Dara.

“Me too. Italian food usually isn’t spicy, but I like all kinds of food. Japanese, Thai, and Indian are my other favorites,” Francesca said.

“Come eat at my house next week,” said Dara.

“Only if you come to eat at mine first,” said Francesca.
